Workshop

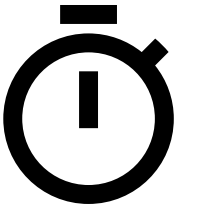

Trust & Accountability

Thought Starters

5 Min

- Where do you find the most value in your creative or professional practice?
- How do you form trust with people, orgs or communities?
- Who holds you accountable?
- Who do you turn to for wisdom, critique, or support?
- What forms of support are most crucial to your success?
- What communities, groups, institutions or frameworks help you create?
- What types of organizations and missions do you value?
- What social interactions support your growth?
- Power dynamics, self awareness, axis of identity

10 Min

Brainstorm

Write down examples of the types of value you find in your networks.
1 example on each sticky note

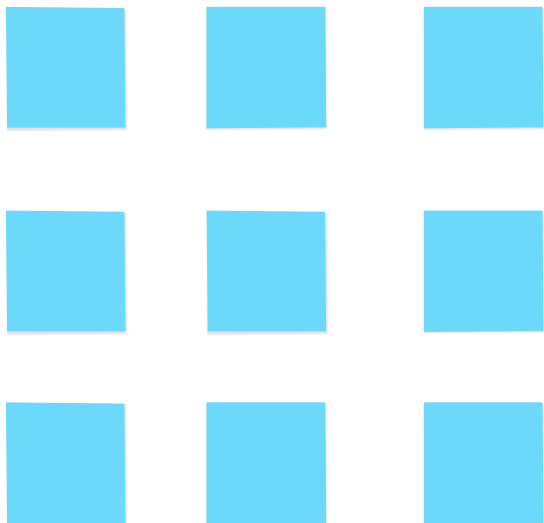

Financial

Orgs/Institutions or other financial support

Mutualistic

Communities, scenes, social circles, support groups, etc.

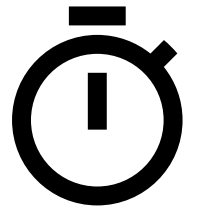

Familial

Mentors, personal relationships, elders, advisors, etc.

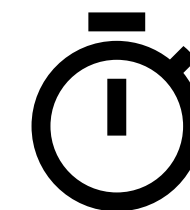

Value Exchange

Thought Starters

5 Min

- What do you value?
- How do you receive and provide value in your day-to-day life?
- What are the most transformative experiences in your creative and professional practice? Who/what/where did they come to fruition?
- Where do you encounter and exchange value with others?
- What types of exchanges produce the best outcomes for your creative practice?
- How does this change across the lifecycle of a project (from conception, to production, to longevity)
- What forms of support are missing?
- Where do you encounter lack? Abundance?

Unpack your Value Exchanges

Dig into sources of value that you wrote down in the last round, for individuals, what are their roles and qualities? For orgs/institutions, how do they operate? Where does their funding come from? Where do value exchanges occur? What is being exchanged?

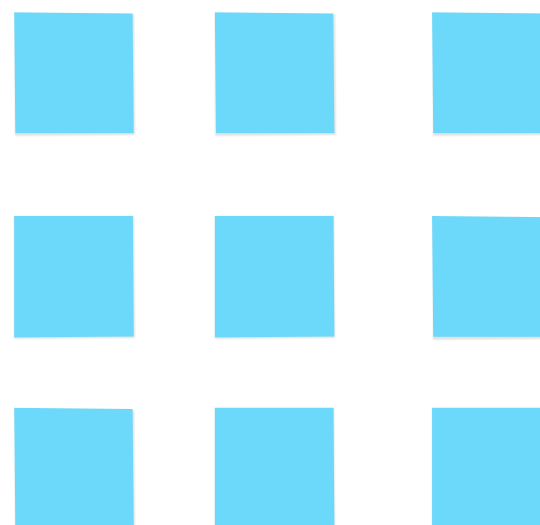

People

Roles, qualities, characteristics, individuals, groups, gatherings.

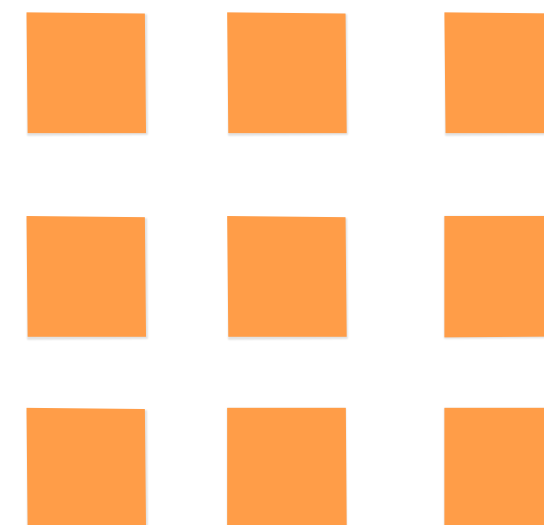

Places

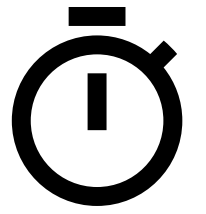

Where and when do you encounter these people?

Things

What is being exchanged? What value are you receiving and providing for others?
